Court
No. 35

G.S.Das

WPA 16313 of 2025

Darshini Chowdhury
-Vs-
The State of West Bengal & Ors.

Mr. Soumya Nag
Mr. Rahul Chakraborty
Ms. S. Parvin
... for the Petitioner(s)

Mr. Subhendu Bandopadhyay
Mr. Sandip Chattopadhyay
... for the State-respondent(s)

Mr. Soumik Ganguly
Mr. Md. S. Rahaman
... for the private respondent No. 7

The petitioner is aggrieved by the manner in which the police authorities have frozen the accounts.

State has submitted a report which reflects that a specific complaint was filed before the police authorities, pursuant to which accounts have been frozen.

An application was made before the learned ACJM, Alipore. Consequent to which, a report has been submitted before the learned ACJM, Alipore by the concerned officer of Anandapur Police Station.

Having considered that the learned ACJM is in seisin of the issues, I am of the view that whether statutory court has got any jurisdiction or not is to be decided by the revisional court and/or the appellate court of that statutory court. This Court while exercising its jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India will not enter into the domain regarding the jurisdiction of legality, illegality and/or, act and actions of that statutory court.

With the aforesaid observations, WPA 16313 of 2025 is disposed of.

Pending application(s), if any, is also disposed of.

Report so submitted be kept with the record.

Parties to act on a server copy of this order duly collected from the official website of the Hon'ble High Court, Calcutta.
