... For the Defacto Complainant

The petitioner is in custody for about three years and renews his prayer for bail.

Learned counsels for the State and the defacto complainant oppose the prayer.

Bail prayer of the petitioner was turned down on two earlier occasions considering the material on record. Allegation against the petitioner is that he stabbed the victim who succumbed to his injuries. Several incriminating material has transpired against the petitioner during investigation. On merits, the petitioner does not deserve a favourable order at this stage.

It appears that 4 out of 31 witnesses have been examined so far. Delay in trial can be attributed to the petitioner to a large extent.

Considering the material on record and prima facie involvement of the petitioner in the alleged offence, prayer for bail is rejected at this stage

Learned trial Court is directed to expedite the trial without granting any unnecessary adjournment to either of the parties.

The application for bail is disposed of.

Case diary be returned.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
