1. Heard the submission of both the learned advocates.
2. Perused the case diary.
3. On careful perusal of the material available in the case diary as well as the statement under Section 180 of BNSS made by various witnesses and the contents of FIR as also the nature of allegation levelled against the present petitioners, who are mother-in-law and sister-in-law of the deceased, this Court finds no such overt act attributed by them for which their custodial interrogation is necessary.
4. In view of the above, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail subject to fulfillment of certain

5. In the event of arrest, the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 482(2) of the BNSS and on further condition that the petitioners shall not threaten the de facto complainant or try to tamper with the evidence and appear before the Court as and when necessary and in case of violation of any of such provisions the prosecution will be at liberty to pray for cancellation of anticipatory bail granted without further reference to this Court.
6. This application for anticipatory bail is, thus, disposed of as allowed.
