1. Heard the submission of both the learned advocates appearing on behalf of the petitioners as well as for the prosecution.
2. Perused the materials from the Case Diary and the statements of various witnesses recorded under Section 180 of the B.N.S.S. including that of the brother of the de facto complainant as appearing at page 28 of the Case Diary and on further consideration that parents of the de facto complainant are no more in the world, this Court finds no reason for custodial interrogation of the petitioners and the prayer for anticipatory bail on behalf of the petitioners stands allowed. The petitioners are the near relatives of the de facto complainant.

each, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 482(2) of the B.N.S.S. and on further condition that the petitioners shall meet with the Investigating Officer once in a month till the conclusion of investigation and on condition that the petitioners shall appear on every date before the jurisdictional Court on the dates fixed for appearance and in default, the jurisdictional Court will pass appropriate order to secure the presence of the petitioners in Court. In default of any of the conditions, the Prosecution will be at liberty to pray for cancellation of bail.
