.....for the State.

Mr. Anindya Lahiri, Sr. Adv.
Mr. Mainak Ganguli
Mr. Samrat Dey Paul
Mr. Subhomay Paul
Mr. A. Chakraborty
....for the de facto complainant

Vakalatnama filed on behalf of the de facto complainant is taken on record.

Heard the learned counsels for the petitioner, the de facto complainant and the State.

Perused the case diary.

There are four employees who are being suspected of theft of money which were proceeds of sale of ice creams.

Considering the materials available in the case diary, I do not think that custodial interrogation of the petitioners is required in this case and I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

In the event of arrest, the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- each with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 corresponding to Section 482(2) of the BNSS, 2023 and on further condition that the petitioners shall cooperate with investigation, shall not threaten or intimidate witnesses and shall meet the I.O. once a week till submission of report in final form.

The application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order may be supplied to the parties expeditiously, if applied for.
