Mr. Mukteswar Maity

Mr. Santi Ranjan Hazra

...for the State

Heard the learned counsels for the parties.

Perused the case diary.

Considering the materials available in the case diary and the fact that the two substantially similarly circumstanced accused were granted anticipatory bail by two Benches of this Court earlier, I do not think that custodial interrogation of the petitioner is required in this case and I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, the application for anticipatory bail of the petitioner is allowed.

However, in the event of arrest, the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 corresponding to Section 482(2) of the BNSS, 2023 and on further condition that the petitioner shall not threaten or intimidate the witnesses and shall co-operate with investigation.

The application for anticipatory bail is, thus, disposed of.
