... For the Petitioner.

Mr. Anand Keshari

... For the State

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is in custody for more than three years and trial is being delayed at the instance of the prosecution.

Learned counsel for the State opposes the prayer.

I have considered the material on record.

Fake Indian currency notes have been recovered from the possession of the petitioner. Prosecution proposes to examine 6 more witnesses.

Learned counsel for the State submits that trial shall be concluded within six months from the next date fixed for evidence before the learned trial Court subject to co-operation of the accused and other systemic reasons.

On merits, the petitioner does not deserve a favourable order at this stage. The prayer for bail is rejected at this stage.

Learned trial Court is directed to expedite the trial without granting any unnecessary adjournment to either of the parties in the light of the submission made on behalf of the State.

The application for bail is disposed of.

Case diary be returned.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
