This application under Article 227 of the Constitution of India is at the instance of the plaintiffs praying for a direction upon the learned Civil Judge (Senior Division), Diamond Harbour, South 24 Parganas to dispose of the Title Suit No. 128 of 2004 expeditiously.

The learned advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that the suit is pending from the year 2004.

In view of the order sought and proposed to be passed, there is no necessity to issue notice upon the opposite parties. However, the learned advocate appearing for the petitioners shall be obliged to forward a copy of this application along with this order upon the opposite parties or upon the learned advocates representing them before the learned trial judge.

From the ordersheets appended to this application this Court finds that 20th August, 2025 was fixed for hearing on the acceptance of show cause of the defendant no.1 and for hearing of the pending petitions.

The learned advocate appearing for the petitioners submits that on 20th August, 2025 no hearing took place and the same has been adjourned to a future date.

In the light of the submissions made by the learned advocate for the petitioners, C.O. 3091 of 2025 stands disposed of by requesting the learned Civil Judge (Senior Division), Diamond Harbour to take up the hearing of the pending applications as well as the hearing on the acceptance of the show cause of the defendant no.1 on the next date fixed and to make an endeavour to dispose of the same as expeditiously as possible without granting any unnecessary adjournments to either of the parties.

After disposal of the pending interlocutory applications the learned trial judge is requested to make an endeavour to dispose of the Title Suit No. 128 of 2004 as expeditiously as possible without granting any unnecessary adjournments to either of the parties.

There shall be, however, no order as to costs.

Urgent certified photocopy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties expeditiously on compliance of usual legal formalities.
