... For the State

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is in custody for 8 years and prays for bail.

Learned counsel for the State opposes the prayer.

I have considered the material on record.

The petitioner is the husband of the victim who appears to have strangled her to death.

This Court is informed that the investigating officer is being examined and trial is about to conclude. Offence, if proved, shall attract mandatory life imprisonment

Considering the material on record, gravity of offence and involvement of the petitioner therein, the prayer for bail is rejected at this stage.

Learned trial Court is directed to expedite the trial without granting any unnecessary adjournment to either of the parties.

The application for bail is disposed of.

Case diary be returned.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
