Mr. Prosenjit Mukherjeefor the petitioner

Mr. Satadru Lahiri
Mr. Sourav Palfor the de facto complainant

1. The submission advanced on behalf of thde learned advocate representing the petitioner is that the case is pending for investigation for more than 1 year and 6 months and the present petitioner is behind the bar for a period of 87 days and he has been falsely implicated by the present de facto complainant, who is the Pradhan of the local panchayat. Accordingly, he prays for enlarging on him bail.
2. Learned advocate representing the de facto complainant raises strong objection and informed the Court regarding the number of criminal antecedents attached, whereby the present petitioner is involved and number of cases pending against him.

3. The learned Prosecution on the other hand submits that the prayer was made on the point of jurisdiction for transferring the case diary to Birbhum Police Station. However, both the petitions have been turned down by the learned Court and it is further submitted that the charge sheet will be submitted within the statutory period.
4. It is not undisputed and undenied that the offence, as alleged, is serious in nature. The criminal intend are evident from the number of cases filed against the petitioner wherefrom the petitioner has been enlarged on bail. More so, the investigation is still going on.
5. At this stage, this Court is of the view that enlarging the petitioner on bail would have adverse effect in the process of investigation where serious allegation is involved.
6. Accordingly, the prayer for bail of the petitioner stands rejected.
7. All parties shall act in terms of server copy of the order downloaded from the official website of this Court.
