... For the Defacto Complainant

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the first petitioner is in custody for more than a year and the second petitioner is in custody for more than a month. The petitioners have been falsely implicated. The petitioners pray for bail.

Learned counsels for the State and the defacto complainant oppose the prayer.

The bail prayer of the first petitioner was turned down by this Court earlier considering the material on record. There is no change in the circumstances of the case which warrants a favour order for the first petitioner at this stage. With regard to the second petitioner, he was absconding for more than a year for which trial was protracted. Warrants of arrest, proclamation and attachment were issued against him. He was arrested on 5th October, 2025 and is in custody since then. 7 co-accused are still absconding. The second petitioner does not appear to be similarly circumstanced with the co-accused who have been granted bail earlier.

Considering the material on record and extent of complicity of the petitioners in the alleged crime, prayer for bail is rejected at this stage.

The application for bail is disposed of.

Case diary be returned.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
