... For the Defacto Complainant

The petitioner is in custody for about 6 months and prays for bail.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the victim has committed suicide. The child of the petitioner has been tutored to implicate the petitioner in the alleged offence. He prays for bail.

Learned counsels for the State and the defacto complainant oppose the prayer.

I have considered the material on record.

The minor son of the victim and the petitioner has implicated the petitioner in the alleged offence soon after the incident. He is an eye witness to the alleged incident.

In view of the incriminating material that transpired against the petitioner in course of investigation and the gravity of offence, prayer for bail is rejected at this stage.

The application for bail is disposed of.

Case diary be returned.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
