... For the State.

1. It is submitted on behalf of the learned Advocate for the petitioner that he is in custody for more than one year and the trial has substantially progressed and two more witnesses are yet to be examined. It is further submitted that he has been falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected with the alleged offence.

2. The learned prosecutor raises strong objection.

3. Having heard the learned prosecutor it can be found that the accused against whom the allegation to supply the fake foreign currency was made has been enlarged on bail. Moreover, the trial has commenced substantially and on the verge of completion and, therefore, considering the period of detention and that almost vital witnesses have been examined, this Court is inclined to allow the prayer for bail.

5. In the event the petitioner fails to comply with any of the conditions stipulated above, the trial Court shall be at liberty to cancel the bail in accordance with law without further reference to this Court.

6. The application for bail is, thus, disposed of.

7. All parties shall act on the server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.

8. Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
