Kanai Karmakar & Ors.
Vs.
Dipayon Roy, The Executive Engineer, Public
Health Engineering directorate & Ors.

Mr. Rahul Karmakar, Advocate
Mr. Sourav Guchhait, Advocate
...for the petitioners

Mr. Sirsanya Bandopadhyay, Sr. Standing Counsel
Mr. Debopriyo Karan, Advocate
...for the alleged contemnor nos.1 & 2

1. Affidavit of compliance filed in Court be taken on record.
2. Affidavit discloses substantial compliance.
3. Discrepancies, if any, and further claims may be agitated before an appropriate forum.
4. Since there is substantial compliance, we deem it appropriate not to invoke the provisions of the Article 215 of the Constitution of India or the Contempt of Courts Act, 1971 any further in the facts and circumstances of the present case.
5. Disposal of the main contempt matter will not be construed to mean that we pronounced on the claims of the rival parties, if any, existing as on date.

6. Rule issued stands discharged.
