Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners submits that due to reasons beyond the control of the petitioners, the demand draft for the sum of Rs.4,58,250/- could not be handed over to the de facto complainant earlier. The same is being handed over to the learned counsel for the de facto complainant in the presence of the de facto complainant in Court. This payment is being made without prejudice.

Heard the learned counsels for the parties.

Perused the case diary.

Considering the above and the other materials available in the case diary, I do not think that custodial interrogation of the petitioners is required in this case and I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Accordingly, the application for anticipatory bail of the petitioners is allowed.

In the event of arrest, the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- each with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 corresponding to Section 482(2) of the BNSS, 2023 and on further conditions that the petitioners shall co-operate with the investigation and shall not threaten or intimidate the witnesses. The petitioners shall meet the I.O. as and when required.

The application for anticipatory bail is, thus, disposed of.
