In Re: - An application under Section 482 read with Section 483 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 under Sections 528/529 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 in connection with complaint Case No. 447 of 2023 under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instrument Act, 1881 pending in the learned Court of 5th Judicial Magistrate, Barrackpore, North 24 Parganas

And
Sri Sujan Kumar Nayak
Vs.
Sri Santu Das & Ors.

Mr. Pinaki Dutta,
Mr. Jayashree Saha
... for the Petitioner

Mr. Abhijit Singh,
Mr. Koustav Bhattacharya
... for the opposite party nos. 2 & 3

Mr. Debasis Kar, (through Virtual Mode)
Mr. Husen Mustafi
... for the respondent

The instant application filed to dispose of the application of interim compensation expeditiously, in accordance with the provisions of Section 143(3) of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, and to dispose of the complaint Case expeditiously.

The affidavit of service has been filed.

Mr. Debasis Kar, learned Counsel for the respondent appearing through virtual mode submitted that, the application for interim compensation has already been disposed of.

On perusal of the copies of the order it appears that, there is no abnormal delay in hearing the original complaint case. This Court is conscious of huge pendency of cases in the Magistrates' Courts.

Prima facie, the petitioner fails to show any delay in hearing of the matter.

Accordingly, the instant criminal application being CRR 4130 of 2024 stands disposed of.

The learned Trial Court is requested to expedite the trial of the matter.

The copy of this application is communicated to the learned Court, 5th Judicial Magistrate, Barrackpore, North 24 Parganas.

Certified copies of this case may be returned.

Urgent certified photocopy of this order, if applied for, shall be supplied to the parties upon compliance of all necessary formalities.
