M.A.T. 1651 of 2019

Haripada Biswas
Vs.
Union of India & Ors.

On 26.11.2025 when the matter was taken up there was none to represent the appellant, nor any prayer was made for accommodation. The situation is same today.

There is none to represent the appellant, nor any prayer for accommodation.

We are, therefore, of the prima facie opinion that the appellant has lost interest in the proceedings.

The appeal is accordingly dismissed for default.
