And

In Re: Kartick Shaw.

Petitioner

Mr. Abhimanyu Banerjee
Mr. Amiya Mondal

For the Petitioner

Mrs. Baishali Basu
Miss. Rita Datta

For the State

1. Having heard the learned Counsel for the petitioner and also taking into consideration the objection of the learned Counsel for the State, I find that though the petitioner was granted bail in the first case initiated by the concerned villagers, the petitioner has also been arrested in the present case, which was initiated at the instance of the financial institution. However, it appears that the concerned I.O. has got sufficient time to investigate the instant matter but unfortunately, he could not complete the investigation. In view thereof, I am inclined to allow the prayer for bail of the petitioner on the ground that the petitioner is in custody for 88 days.

2. Thus, the prayer for bail of the petitioner is allowed.

³⁵₁₇ Accordingly, the petitioner, namely, Kartick Shaw shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.1,00,000/-, with two sureties of Rs.50,000/- each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Chinsurah, Hooghly, and on further conditions that he shall report to the Officer-in-Charge of the said Police Station once in a week until further order and he shall not leave the local jurisdiction without permission of the learned Trial Court.

3. The petitioner shall appear before the trial court on every date of hearing until further orders and shall not intimidate the witnesses and/or tamper with evidence and/or commit any cognizable offence in any manner whatsoever.
4. In the event the petitioner fails to adhere to any of the conditions stipulated above without justifiable cause, the trial court shall be at liberty to cancel the petitioner's bail in accordance with law without further reference to this Court.
5. The application for bail is, accordingly, allowed.
6. All parties shall act in terms of the server copy of the order downloaded from the official website of this Court.
