M.A.T. 1783 of 2019
Dr. Sunit Kumar Mukhopadhyay
Vs.
The State of West Bengal & Ors.

On 26.11.2025 when the matter was taken up there was none to represent the appellant, nor any prayer was made for accommodation. The situation is same today.

There is none to represent the appellant, nor any prayer for accommodation.

We are, therefore, of the prima facie opinion that the appellant has lost interest in the proceedings.

The appeal is accordingly dismissed for default.
