Mr. Asraf Mandal
Mr. Tanbir Mandal

... for the petitioner

Ms. Sreyashee Biswas
Ms. Madhumita Basak

... for the State

Heard learned counsels for the parties.

Perused the case diary.

It appears from the subsequent statement of the alleged victim that a settlement has been arrived at between the private parties and the alleged victim has gone back to her matrimonial home and is staying there peacefully. She also stated in the subsequent statement that she does not want to proceed with the case.

Considering the above and the other materials available in the case diary, I do not think that custodial interrogation is required in this case and I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

In the event of arrest, the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- (rupees ten thousand) with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 corresponding to Section 482(2) of the BNSS, 2023 and on the further conditions that the petitioner shall cooperate with the investigation, shall meet the investigating officer once a fortnight till submission of report in final form and shall not threaten or intimidate witnesses.

The application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance of requisite formalities.
