....For the De facto
complainant

Heard learned counsels for the parties and perused the case diary.

It is submitted on behalf of the petitioner that the petitioner, who is the sister-in-law, stayed elsewhere. The husband of the victim is in custody and the mother-in-law has been granted bail.

Considering the materials available in the case diary and the alleged role ascribed to the petitioner, I do not think that custodial interrogation of the petitioner is required in this case and I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, the application for anticipatory bail of the petitioner is allowed.

In the event of arrest, the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- with two sureties of like amount, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 corresponding to Section 482(2) of the BNSS, 2023 and on further condition that the petitioner shall cooperate with the investigation and shall not threaten or intimidate the witnesses.

The application for anticipatory bail is, thus, disposed of.
