C.O. No. 3918 of 2025

Sri Pranoy Bhusan Dutta
Vs.
Sri Dilip Ranjan Biswas & Ors.

Mr. Siva Prasad Ghose
Ms. Ipsita Ghosh

.....for the petitioner.

The petitioner prays for expeditious disposal of Title Suit No. 22 of 2016 along with an application for mandatory injunction. The proceedings are pending before the learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), First Court, Barrackpore.

It is submitted that the application is pending since 2019. The suit is of 2016.

The prayer of the petitioner is innocuous. Neither party stands to lose if a proceeding is disposed of expeditiously. In fact, such expeditious disposal shall enure to the benefit of the parties. Hence, there is no requirement for service of prior notice upon the opposite parties.

The revisional application is disposed of with a request to the learned court to dispose of the pending application within two months from the next date fixed. Adequate opportunity shall be granted to the parties to contest the same. The learned court is also requested to make a sincere endeavour to dispose of the suit expeditiously, preferably within a year from the date of disposal of the said application.

This court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the application and the suit. The learned court shall proceed independently and in accordance with law.

A copy of the revisional application along with a server copy of this order be served upon the opposite parties and/or the learned advocate contesting the matter on behalf of the opposite parties in the learned court below, within a week.

The revisional application is accordingly disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs.

Parties are to act on the server copy of this order.
