In Re: An application for anticipatory bail under Section 482 of the BNSS, 2023. In connection with New Town P.S case no. 1 of 2025 dated 1/1/2025 under sections 419/420/406/120B of the IPC.

In the matter of: Subrata Das

...Petitioner.

Mr. Abhijit Singh
Ms. Sarmistha Basak

...for the petitioner.

Mr. Joydeb Biswas
Mr. S. S. Saha

...for the State.

1. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits as follows. The petitioner was an employee of a Tour Operator Company. The principal accused being the Director of the Company had been arrested and was thereafter granted bail. Before lodging the FIR, the de-facto complainant had approached the Consumer Dispute Redressal Forum.
2. Learned counsel appearing for the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail. He relies on the statements of the witnesses and certain documents seized.
3. Considering the materials available in the case diary, the alleged role ascribed to the present petitioner, the fact that the principal accused being the Director of the Company was arrested and was thereafter granted bail and the fact that charge-sheet has been submitted, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. In the event of arrest, the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- each with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and also be subject to further conditions that the petitioner shall not threaten or intimidate the witnesses. The petitioner shall surrender before the learned jurisdictional Court and pray for bail within four weeks from date and shall attend the Court regularly.
5. Accordingly, the application for anticipatory bail is allowed.
6. Urgent photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be given to the parties upon compliance with requisite formalities.
