.....Petitioner.

Mr. Bibaswan Bhattacharyya,
Mr. Supriyo Sasmal,for the Petitioner.

Mr. Iqbal Kabir,
Mr. Ratul Ghosh,for the State.

Mr. Satadru Lahiri,
Syed Wasim Faruque, ...for the de facto complainant.

Dictated by Apurba Sinha Ray, J.

1. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that there was a love relation between the present petitioner and the victim girl and they had unofficially married. Due to pressure of the mother of the victim girl, the instant case was initiated. The petitioner is in custody for about 8 months and out of 15 chargesheet named witnesses 4 witnesses have been examined. There is no chance of an early conclusion of the trial and as such he may be granted bail on any condition.
2. Learned counsel for the State and also the learned counsel for the de facto complainant have raised vehement objection. According to them, there are sufficient incriminating materials in the deposition of the victim girl. They have also drawn our attention to the material-on-record in the case diary.

3. We have gone through the material-on-record including the deposition of the victim girl and other witnesses. There are sufficient incriminating materials against the present petitioner. Allegedly, the victim girl was pushed into prostitution by the petitioner. We do not find any tangible delay in the present proceeding.
4. Considering all the aspects, we are not inclined to allow the prayer for bail of the petitioner.
5. CRM (DB) 3898 of 2024 is dismissed.
6. However, considering the period of detention of the petitioner, we request the learned trial Court to expedite the trial to the extent possible and conclude the same on an early date.
7. Let this order be communicated by the parties to the learned Court below.
8. All parties shall act in terms of server copy of the order downloaded from the official website of this Court.
