Court. No. 6
GB

C.O. 4162 of 2025

Tapan Dey & Anr.
Vs.
Parbati Patra & Ors.

Mr. Pralay Hazra

...for the Petitioners.

1. By this application, the petitioners seek expeditious disposal of Title Suit No.192 of 2015 along with an application under Order 11 Rule 21 of the Code of Civil Procedure, which are pending before the learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), 3rd Court at Burdwan, Purba Bardhaman.
2. Considering the submissions, this Court is of the view that the prayer of the petitioners is innocuous. Neither party stands to lose if a proceeding is disposed of expeditiously. In fact, such expeditious disposal shall enure to the benefit of the parties. Hence, there is no requirement for service of prior notice upon the opposite parties.
3. Under such circumstances, the revisional application is disposed of with a direction upon the learned court to dispose of application as expeditiously as possible, preferably within a period of one month from the next date fixed. Based on the fate of the said application, the learned court shall proceed with the suit expeditiously.
4. This court has neither expressed any opinion on the merits of the application nor on the merits of the suit.

The learned court shall proceed independently and in accordance with law.

5. The revisional application is accordingly disposed of.
6. A copy of the revisional application, along with a server copy of this order be served upon the opposite parties and/or the learned advocate contesting the matter on behalf of the opposite parties in the learned trial court.
7. There shall be no order as to costs.
8. Parties are to act on the server copy of this order.
