Mr. Ujjal Ray
...for the petitioner.

Mr. Kanak Kiran Bandyopadhyay
....for the WBCSSC.

1. Mr. Ray, learned advocate appearing for the writ petitioner has been instructed in writing that the present writ petition may not be pressed any further.
2. Mr. Ray has handed over the written instruction received from his client. Let that be taken on record.
3. On consideration of the instruction of the petitioner as well as the submission of the learned advocate, let this matter be disposed of “for non-prosecution”.
