Learned advocate for the petitioner submits that the accusations of the prosecution are to the extent that from the joint possession of the petitioner and another, 25 kg of ganja were recovered. Learned advocate also submits that the petitioner is in custody for one year four months and thirteen days. According to the learned advocate there is no scope of the trial being concluded very soon, as such, on any stringent condition, the petitioner may be released on bail.

Additionally, it has been submitted that the other accused has already been granted bail.

Learned advocate for the State opposes the prayer for bail. However, so far as the issue relating to parity is concerned, no distinction can be made behalf of the prosecution.

Having considered the totality of the circumstances, I am inclined to release the petitioner on bail.

Hence, the prayer for bail of the petitioner is Allowed.
