Dipak Kumar Roy
Vs.
Rohidas Roy, since deceased, represented by Arati Roy

Mr. Rajdeep Mantha,
Mr. Mainak Biswas
...for the Petitioner.

1. The petitioner prays for expeditious disposal of the applications in connection with Title Suit No.152 of 2021, which are pending before the learned Judge, 10th Bench, City Civil Court, Calcutta.
2. The prayer of the petitioner is innocuous. Neither party stands to lose if a proceeding is disposed of expeditiously. In fact, such expeditious disposal shall enure to the benefit of the parties. Hence, there is no requirement for service of prior notice upon the opposite party.
3. This revisional application is disposed of by requesting the learned Trial Judge to dispose of the application for substitution within two weeks from the next date fixed and other pending applications shall be decided preferably within a period of six months from the date of disposal of the substitution application upon giving adequate opportunity to all the contesting parties, but without granting any unnecessary adjournment to either of the parties, strictly in accordance with law.

4. This court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the applications. The learned court shall proceed independently and in accordance with law.
5. A copy of the revisional application along with a server copy of this order be served upon the opposite party and/or the learned advocate contesting the matter on behalf of the opposite party in the learned court below, within a week.
6. Affidavit-of-service to be filed before the Court below.
7. The revisional application is accordingly disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs.
8. Parties are to act on the server copy of this order.
