Petitioners complain that the female folk were being threatened, abused and hurled with filthy languages. To that effect, information was furnished and a criminal case was registered by the police authorities. Subsequently, charge-sheet has already been submitted in connection with the said case. Petitioners submit that they have some grievance in respect of charge-sheet which has been submitted.

Learned Advocate for the State has submitted a report which reflects regarding the steps taken by the police authorities and the vigil which has been kept to prevent any untoward incident. Police authorities would continue their surveillance so that no further untoward incident results or there is any aggression at the behest of any of the parties.
