Zurich Kotak General Insurance Co. (India) Ltd.
Vs.
Kanchan Kanti Panda & Anr.

Mr. Rajesh Singh
... for the appellant/ /insurance co.

The learned advocate representing the appellant/insurance company has filed an instruction received by him through email from the concerned insurance company expressing unwillingness to proceed with the instant appeal. Let the said written instruction be kept on record.

Under such circumstances, the instant appeal is dismissed for non prosecution.

The learned advocate representing the appellant/insurance company submits that the statutory amount of Rs. 25,000/- deposited at the office of the learned Registrar General, High Court at Calcutta along with interest accrued may be returned to the insurance company.

The office of the learned Registrar General High Court at Calcutta, shall return the statutory amount as aforesaid along with interest so accrued to the Learned Advocate for the Appellant/Insurance Company through a cheque for the accounts of the insurance company for records.
