CALCUTTA HIGH COURT
In The Circuit Bench at Jalpaiguri
Appellate Side

CO No. 121 of 2025

Smt. Devika Pradhan and another
Vs.
Smt. Dolly Chowdhury and another

Mr. Sandip Mondal,
Mr. Amit Saha

... for the petitioners.

1. The grievance of the petitioners is that an application for stay of an eviction decree, which has been challenged in a Title Appeal filed by the petitioners, has not been heard out till date by the appellate court, despite the same having been filed as long back as on December 2, 2024 simultaneously with the appeal.
2. In view of the innocuous nature of the prayer made, prior service of notice of the revisional application on the opposite parties is dispensed with.
3. CO No. 121 of 2025 is disposed of by requesting the learned Additional District Judge, First Court at Siliguri, to dispose of the application for stay filed in connection with Title Appeal No. 24 of 2024 pending in the said court at the earliest, preferably within three weeks from the date of communication of this order to the said court.

4. For the purpose of compliance of this order, the First Appellate Court as well as all concerned shall act on the server copy of this order, without insisting upon prior production of a certified copy.
5. The learned Advocate-on-record of the petitioners before this Court shall serve a copy of the revisional application as well as the server copy of this order on the learned Advocate appearing for the opposite parties in the court below, if any.
6. Alternatively, the server copy of this order along with the revisional application shall be served on the opposite parties directly within a week from date.
7. There will be no order as to costs.
