Mina Pal
Vs.

The State of West Bengal & Ors.

For the Petitioner : Mr. Krishna Pada Santra, Adv.

For the State : Mr. Momenur Rahman, Adv,
Ms. Pratusha Dutta Chaudhury, Adv. (V.C.)

Heard on : 08.09.2025

Judgment on : 08.09.2025

Aniruddha Roy, J.

Affidavit of service filed in Court today, is taken on record.

Mr. Momenur Rahman and Ms. Pratusha Dutta Chaudhury, learned Advocates appear for the State.

The petitioner was an approved Lower Division Cleark at Kalipada Ghosh Tarai Mahavidhyalay, District-Darjeeling. The petitioner retired from his service on 31.01.2015.

The Pension Payment Order was issued by the concerned respondent on 12.03.2015. The petitioner had received pesnsion and gratuity under the pension payment order on 30.06.2015. The petitioner was entitled to pensionary benefit from the date of retirement, the same was not paid.

It is trite that, the pension, which is lawfully payable to an employee is its property and if there is any delay in making such payment and the disbursement thereof in favour of such employee, such an employee is eligible and entitle to receive interest.

In view of the above, the respondents and or the Director of Public Instruction and the concerned Treasury Officer are directed to pay interest on the revised gratuity and revised arrear pension @ 8% per annum on and from the next date of retirement till the date of actual payment being received by the petitioner in terms of the revised Pension Payment Order.

The entire exercise as directed above, shall be carried out and completed positively by the respondents and or the Director of Public Instruction and the concerned Treasury Officer within a period of eight weeks from the date of communication of this order. In default, the said arrear amounts and the entitlement of the petitioner shall carry an additional interest of 2% per annum till the date the petitioner actually receives the same.

Since affidavits are not called for, the allegations made in the writ petition are deemed not to have been admitted by the respondents.

On the above terms, this writ petition being WPA 1883 of 2025 stands disposed of, without any order as to costs.

Photostat certified of this order, if applied for, be furnished expeditiously.
