HITEN S. VENEGAVKAR, JJ.

DATE : 16 SEPTEMBER, 2025

PER COURT :-

1. The applicants and the respondent No. 2 have settled their dispute and the consent terms have been produced. The brother-in-law and sister-in-law i.e. applicants No. 4 and 6 was not present before the learned Registrar (Judicial) for verification, but since the matter arose out of the matrimonial dispute, there is in fact no question of identity dispute.

2. A compromise was placed on record in proceedings bearing PWDVA No. 459 of 2023 before the learned Judicial Magistrate, First Class, Aurangabad, wherein, as per the terms of the compromise, respondent No. 2 has received an amount of Rs. 4,50,000/- from applicant No. 1 towards full and final settlement of maintenance, and both parties have decided to part their ways. Now, respondent No.2 has no objection for quashment of the proceedings. The terms and conditions have been verified by the learned Registrar (Judicial) and he has submitted the report on 09.09.2025, therefore, there is no hurdle in accepting the settlement. Hence, we proceed to pass the following order.
