DATE : 6th MAY 2025

PER COURT :

. Applicant is praying for disbursement of the additional 10% of the amount already deposited by the Respondent No.1/acquiring body with accrued interest. By earlier order dated 21.09.2017, applicant was permitted to receive 50% of the deposited amount on furnishing undertaking and solvent surety. Now he prays to withdraw further 10% of amount with accrued interest relying on common order dated 22.10.2021 passed in group of appeal which is at page no.11 of the compilation of the application.

2. In a similarly situated matters, the claimants were permitted to receive 10% of the amount on furnishing undertaking to the satisfaction of the Registrar (Judicial). Learned counsel for the Respondent No.1/acquiring body strongly opposes the application.

3. I am of the considered view that the direction solicited by the applicant is very genuine. As per view taken by this Court in a common order passed on 22.10.2021 in similarly situated matters, there is no impediment in permitting the applicants to withdraw further 10% amount with accrued interest.

4. Civil application is allowed in terms of prayer clause 'B'.
