2. The respective applicants submit that their source of earning and livelihood has been taken away due to compulsory acquisition of their property. That, very meager amount was awarded to the applicants by the Competent Authority. That even, the learned Reference Court has also not granted adequate enhancement to the applicants. Hence, present First Appeals are filed by the applicants. However, due to lack of legal knowledge, general awareness of the proceedings and poor financial condition despite a wish to get enhanced compensation, they could not approach for legal advise, nor could they file the present appeals well within limitation or at the earliest thereafter. With this, the applicants seek condonation of delay caused in filing present appeals.

3. Per contra, the respondents oppose condonation of the delay, contending that the applications and appeals are filed afterthought and they are filed with sole object to earn more money on sympathy.

4. Upon having heard the parties, I am of the considered view that enhancement by way of First Appeal is a statutory right of claimant. The farmers, whose agricultural land has been acquired, must get adequate opportunity to claim for adequate and proportionate enhancement in the compensation. For that, technicality of delay must not be a hurdle.

5. Profitable reference can be made to the judgment and order passed by the Supreme Court in the case of Suresh Kumar Vs. State of Haryana and ors., (Civil Appeal arising out of (C) No.670/2020) and connected matters decided on 23.04.2025. Their Lordships, after considering series of judgments, have observed in paragraph 11, as follows :-

“11. In all judgments referred supra, the common thread that can be observed is that delay is not a reason to deny the land losers their compensation, which is just, fair and reasonable for the land they have lost.”

6. Thus, for the reasons stated above, I am inclined to condone the delay, caused in filing the First Appeal. Hence, following order:

ORDER

- a. Respective delays caused in filing First Appeals are hereby condoned.
- b. Appellants/Applicants shall not claim any benefit or statutory interest for the delayed period.
- c. Civil Applications stand allowed.
- d. Registry to register the appeals, subject to removal of office objections, if any, by the applicants/appellants within two weeks from today.

FIRST APPEALS

. Subject to removal of all office objections, issue notice to the respondents, returnable on 14.10.2025. Learned AGP waives service of notice for respondents-State.

2. Call Record and Proceedings.
