

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY BENCH AT AURANGABAD

950 FIRST APPEAL NO. 1605 OF 2012

NATIONAL INSURANCE CO. LTD., THR. ITS DIVISIONAL MANAGER, AURANGABAD

VERSUS

SHEHNAJBEGAM MOINODDIN AND OTHERS

...

Advocate for Appellant : Mr. Atul B. Gatne

Advocate for Respondent nos.1 to 4 : Mr. S.D.Hiwarekar

Advocate for Respondent no.6 : Ms.Neha Udavant h/f.

Mr. S.J.Salunke

...

WITH CIVIL APPLICATION NO. 13160 OF 2015

IN FA/1605/2012

WITH X-OBJECTION NO. 105 OF 2022

IN FA/1605/2012

....

CORAM : ABHAY S. WAGHWASE, J.

DATE : 11 NOVEMBER, 2025

ORDER :-

1. Learned Counsel for the parties pointed out that present matter is amicably settlement between the parties. The consent terms are drawn and parties are also present before the Court. Joint purshis is also placed on record. Attention of this Court is invited to the consent terms, more particularly, paragraph nos.3, 4 and 6, which reads as under :

"3. That, appellant/Insurance Company has got no objection for withdrawal of remaining 50% amount Rs.1,58,018/- by the claimants along with interest accrued if any.

4. That, appellant/Insurance Company would pay balance amount Rs.1,73,963/- (4,90,000 - 3,16,037 = 1,73,963) by Demand Draft / cheque in the name of claimant no.1

6. That, claimant nos.3 and 4 (Mumtaz Jarin and Firdos Najmim) have become major and got married and residing at their matrimonial house. They have got no objection if the entire amount of compensation is paid to their old age mother claimant / respondent no.1. No objection letters of claimant nos.2, 3 and 4 are filed separately along with this pursis."

2. In view of joint compromise purshis and consent terms, First Appeal is disposed of as settled.

3. Respondent no.1/Claimant no.1 to furnish certified copy of the bank details to enable the appellant Insurance Company to pay the amount directly to respondent no.1 through RTGS. Accordingly, respondent no.1 shall also be entitled to receive amount lying in this Court.

4. Pending Civil Application and Cross Objection are disposed of accordingly.

(ABHAY S. WAGHWASE)
JUDGE