6. The learned AGP vehemently argued that, in the present case, the learned SLAO had rightly awarded the amount of compensation by considering the market value, situation of the land, fertility etc. The learned Civil Judge Senior Division, however, has considered the sale instances and enhanced the amount. He further submits that the sale-

deed relied upon were executed just before the acquisition, and therefore, those could not have been relied upon by the Court. The Court has relied only upon the evidence of one of the claimants. He thus submits that the impugned judgment and order deserves to be quashed and set aside.

7. The learned Advocates Mr. Mukhedkar and Mr. Sakolkar, appearing in respective appeals vehemently argued that the learned Reference Court has rightly awarded the compensation. It is for the Court to award fair and adequate compensation towards land acquired by the State Government. Mr. Mukhedkar relied upon the judgment in the case of *Ambalal Babulal Patel etc. Vs. Group General Manager ONGC and Anr.*¹. He thus prays for rejection of the appeals.

8. In the case of Ambalal Patel (supra), the Apex Court held that, the the said case, the reference Court has enhanced the amount of compensation. The High Court in first appeals reversed the order passed by the learned Reference Court. The matter went up to the Hon'ble Supreme Court. The Hon'ble Apex Court held that when the learned Reference Court had relied upon sale instances and has rightly passed the orders, it was not proper for the High Court to interfere with the order. The learned Advocate also relied upon the order passed by this Court in First Appeal No.979/2002 with other connected first appeals dated 22nd August 2024 and order passed in First Appeal No.1336/2008 and connected appeals dated 25th September 2024. In those cases, the appeals are dismissed on the ground that the enhancement was meagre and not unreasonable.

9. After hearing the parties and going through the judgment, this Court finds that in the present case also the reference Court has rightly passed the order by considering sale instances. The sale instance shows the rate of Rs.10,15,000/- per hectre, still he has granted the rate of Rs.2,89,275/-. There was another sale instance. He has considered that the said sale instances was prior to one year and eight months of the notification under Section 4 of the Land Acquisition Act. He considered the other sale-deeds and has come to a right conclusion. This Court does not find any illegality or perversity in the impugned order.

10. Considering above, this Court does not find any merit in the appeals, and therefore, all the appeals are dismissed with no order as to costs.
