DATE : 23.04.2025

P.C. :

1] Heard the learned counsel for the applicants, so also, the learned counsel for the respondents.

2] The learned counsel appearing for the parties has filed joint pursis and the same is taken on record and marked 'X' for identification. The learned counsel for the parties submit that there is one crime, which is registered at the instance of Superintendent of Police, CBI, Anti Corruption Buruea, Pune, on 03.01.2012, being FIR No.RC/Pune/2012/A/0001. They further submit that out of 17 trials, the trial Court has framed charges in 10 trials for the offences punishable under Sections 120-B r/w. 420, 409, 467, 468, 471 of IPC and under Section 7 and 13 (2) r/w. 13 (1) (d) of the Prevention of Corruption Act.

However, in remaining trials, the respondents – accused have been discharged for the offences punishable under the Prevention of Corruption Act. They further submit that the applicant herein examined 44 witnesses in the trials which are subject matter of the present revisions. They further submit that in the event charges are restored, there would be great hardship to the accused as well as to the prosecuting agency. They further submits that they filed pursis for setting aside the impugned orders in the present revisions. As such, all the Criminal Revision Applications are allowed in terms of prayer clause-C, respectively.

3] The learned counsel for the parties submits that the trials are pending since last 11 years, therefore, the trial Court be directed to expedite the trials.

4] Considering the same, the trial Court is directed to conclude the trial as early as possible.

5] All pending Criminal Applications, if any, are also disposed of.
