DATE : 03.04.2025

PER COURT :-

. Heard the learned advocate for the petitioner.

2. The petitioner who claims to be a life member of the educational institution and trust, claims that it is being now managed by bogus trustees and they are about to undertake a recruitment process.

3. Taking into account the fact that the order of the Deputy Charity Commissioner provisionally accepting a change report from the other faction is in force, albeit the petitioner claims to have challenged it, as long as that provisional acceptance order remains in force, the prayer clause (C) cannot be considered.

4. The writ petition is disposed of directing the respondent Nos. 1 to 4 to consider the petitioner's representation dated 24.03.2025.
