VERSUS

SANKET PRAKASH DESHMUKH

Mr. S.S. Wagh, Advocate for the applicant.

CORAM : KISHORE C. SANT, J.

DATE : 18.12.2025

PC :-

01. Heard learned Advocate for the applicant. In spite of service of notice for final disposal, none appears for the respondent. This matter is, therefore, taken up with the assistance of learned Advocate for the applicant.

02. The applicant-wife has approached this Court seeking transfer of proceeding of Marriage Petition No.132 of 2024, pending in the Court of Civil Judge, Senior Division, Vaijapur to the Court of learned Civil Judge, Senior Division, Pimpri, Dist.Pune. It is case of the wife that distance between the two places is about 250 kms. Presently she is residing with her old aged parents. She finds it difficult to travel to Pune for attending the dates, as there is no one to accompany her in the family. On this count, learned Advocate for the applicant prays to allow this application.

03. Since the respondent has not appeared inspite of notice, this Court presumes that the respondent has no objection to allow this application.

04. Considering the above and the points raised in the application, this Misc. Civil Application is allowed in terms of prayer clause (B). After transfer of the proceeding, the applicant-wife shall not seek unnecessary adjournment. If the Trial Court found that the adjournment is unnecessarily sought by the wife, the Trial Court shall pass appropriate orders compensating the husband, if he personally remains present in the Court. If husband makes request to appear through video conferencing, the Trial Court shall consider said request liberally.
