CORAM : ABHAY S. WAGHWASE, J.

DATED : 16 APRIL 2025

PER COURT :-

1. Not on board. Taken on Board.
2. Heard.
3. Issue notice to respondent – State. Learned APP waives service of notice for respondent – State.

4. Present application is for suspension of sentence and grant of bail on account of conviction order passed by learned Additional Sessions Judge, Aurangabad in Sessions Case No.123 of 2018.

5. Learned counsel for applicants pointed out that, present applicants were tried by the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Aurangabad for commission of offence under section 324 of Indian Penal Code in Sessions Case No.123 of 2018. That, judgment has been rendered on 28.03.2025 holding applicants guilty for above offence. It is pointed out that, sentence awarded is of two years and to pay fine. That, exception has been taken to the above judgment by filing appeal, however, appeal being of 2025, there are no prospects of hearing the appeal in near future. He submitted that, applicants were on bail during trial and fine amount is already deposited by the applicants. Therefore, relief of suspension of sentence and grant of bail are pressed into service.

6. Learned APP opposed on the ground that on full-fledge trial guilt has been recorded and there is every possibility of misuse of liberty.

7. After considering the submissions and on going through the papers, it appears that, vide judgment and order dated 28.03.2025 passed in Sessions Case No.123 of 2018, present applicants are held guilty for offence punishable under sections 324 of IPC. Apparently, sentence awarded is of two years and to pay fine. Applicants are said to be on bail during trial and the fine amount is said to be deposited. As appeal against above judgment and order is of 2025 and obviously it would take long time to be heard and decided, relief as prayed deserves to be granted. Hence, the following order is passed :
