DATE : 15 JULY 2025

P. C. :-

1. Heard learned Advocates for the parties.
2. This Criminal Application No. 1503 of 2025 Application filed in Criminal Revision Application 202 of 2024 by the Respondent in the said Criminal Revision Application. The Applicant herein is retired person and a pensioner having no other income source. The Application is filed for withdrawal of an amount of Rs.1,60,000/- i.e. 20% as deposited by the Respondent i.e. the present Applicant with the office/Registry of Additional Sessions Judge, Aurangabad. Such deposit is pursuant to an order dated 17 December 2024 where the Court had directed the original Accused i.e. the present Applicant to deposit 50% of the awarded amount.
3. With the assistance of the learned Advocates for the parties who appeared before the Court today, I have perused the Application. A case for such withdrawal has been duly made out by the Applicant. The balance of convenience tilts in favour of this Applicant. A formal objection of the learned Advocate for the Respondent/original Revision Applicant is duly noted.

4. The following order is passed:-

ORDER

(i) The Applicant/Original Respondent is allowed to withdraw a sum of Rs.1,60,000/- which is deposited with the Registry of the Additional Sessions Judge, Aurangabad by making an appropriate Application in this regard.

(ii) On making such Application the same would be processed as expeditiously as possible not later than within 10 days from receipt of such Application by the said Registry.

(iii) It is made clear that this withdrawal is subject to outcome of the Revision Application.

(iv) In the event this Applicant fails to bring that the amount in case the original Applicant succeeds in the Criminal Revision Application, in that event the amount shall be brought back by this Applicant (original Respondent) with accumulated interest, failing which it shall be recovered, in accordance with law.

5. The Criminal Application No. 1503 of 2025 is accordingly Disposed Of.
