CORAM : KISHORE C. SANT, J.

DATE : 12.06.2025

PER COURT :

1. Mr. Bhavthankar, learned Advocate holding for learned advocate Mr. Deshmukh for respondent Nos. 2 to 4 on instructions, submits that, the petition is filed against the order refusing to transfer of the proceeding of S.C.C.No. 543/2009 passed by the learned Principal District and Sessions Judge, Aurangabad in Criminal Misc. Application No. 575/2024. It is submitted that now the concerned Magistrate is transferred to other place. The Petition, therefore, has become infructuous.

2. The learned Advocate for the petitioner was absent in the morning session, he is absent even in the second session.

3. Considering the submissions made by the Advocate for respondent Nos. 2 to 4, this Court finds that the petition has become infructuous and the same is disposed of as such.
