CORAM : MEHROZ K. PATHAN, J.

DATED : 08.12.2025

PER COURT :

1. This Court, vide order dated 16.07.2024, issued notice to the respondent, returnable on 01.08.2025. However, this Court noted that learned counsel for the applicant had failed to supply spare copies and, therefore, notice was not issued. Learned counsel for the applicant undertook to supply the spare copies and, accordingly, two weeks' time was granted thereafter for issuance of fresh notice to the respondent.

2. This Court, vide order dated 03.11.2025, again took note of the fact that the applicant had not taken any steps and, therefore, granted two weeks' time to take appropriate steps for removal of office objections. The office objections were not removed even till 17.11.2025. Consequently, this Court passed an order on 17.11.2025 directing that if the applicant failed to take any steps within a period of two weeks from the date of the said order, the application shall stand dismissed without further reference to the Court.

3. The Office note reflects that the objections have still not been removed by the applicant, as directed vide order dated 03.11.2025, and therefore, in view of the order dated 17.11.2025, the application stands dismissed.

4. Any application for restoration of the present application shall be entertained only upon the applicant depositing costs of Rs. 3,000/- with the Registrar of this Court.

5. The application stands disposed of accordingly.
