proceeding for maintenance filed in the Family Court at Latur. Since the husband has not paid the maintenance. Now the execution is also filed in the Family Court at Latur.

4. Learned Advocate for the Respondent vehemently opposed the application.

5. To avoid conflicting judgments and for the convenience of the wife, it is appropriate to transfer both the proceedings i.e. Hindu Marriage Petition No.120/2022 and petition bearing No.A-259/2022, to be tried at one place by the same Court. Looking to the conduct of the respondent-husband that inspite of orders, he has not paying the maintenance regularly and execution is required to be filed.

6. Hence, the following order:

ORDER

(i) Misc. Civil Application stands allowed.

(ii) The proceedings of Hindu Marriage Petition No.120/2022, from the Court of learned CJSD, Ambejogai stands transferred to the Court of learned Family Court at Latur.
