now come before this Court stating that the applicant No.2.2, namely, Sheetal Revannath Auate, is mentally disabled and she cannot come to this Court for giving undertaking. The other applicants have not withdrawn the amounts of their respective shares as well. The necessary modification is therefore sought in the present order.

4. Considering above, clause (b) of order dated 29th July 2024 passed in CA No. 7502/2024 shall be read as under:

“The applicants are permitted to withdraw the amounts of their shares individually.”

5. The office to disburse the amount to each individual applicants in their joint account. The amount of shares of applicants, except applicant No.2.2, permitted to be withdrawn on executing undertaking.

6. With this, application stands disposed off.
