CORAM : PRAFULLA S. KHUBALKAR, J.

DATE : 01st July, 2025

Per Court :-

1. Heard learned advocates appearing for the respective parties.

2. This is an application for condonation of delay in filing the Second Appeal.

3. Learned advocate for the applicant submits that the delay is of 66 days, which occurred since the applicant was not able to immediately take steps for filing the Second Appeal on account of the fact that she is dependent on her brother. It is stated that some time was consumed in arranging the court fees and for collecting documents for the purpose of filing the Second

Appeal. It is contended that delay is not deliberate and not intentional and same needs to be condoned.

4. Learned advocate for the respondents opposes the application and submits that although the delay is short, however, the reasons mentioned for condonation of delay are not sufficient.

5. In view of the reasons mentioned for condonation of delay as stated in paragraph Nos.3 and 4 of the application and having considered the submissions, delay of 66 days needs to be condoned in the interest of justice. The Civil Application is allowed. The Second Appeal be registered.
