3. It is alleged in the report that the applicant, along with the other co-accused, assaulted the informant and his cousin Anis Shaikh Rashid with a sickle and a stick.
4. The learned advocate for the applicant pointed out the injury certificates of the informant and his cousin. He submitted that only simple injuries were caused to the informant and his cousin and that the allegation regarding the use of sickle is falsely made. He further submitted that the other co-accused have already been released on bail. It is also submitted that the applicant has roots in the society and he will not flee away from the trial. Accordingly, he lastly prayed to grant bail to the applicant.

5. The learned APP for the State strongly opposed the application and submitted that the applicant is involved in a serious crime of attempt to commit murder. He further submitted that if the applicant is released on bail, there is possibility that he may commit a similar offence, pressurize the prosecution witnesses and tamper with the evidence. He, therefore, lastly prayed to reject the application.

6. Perused the charge sheet, particularly the report, statements of witnesses and injury certificates. Considering the fact that the other co-accused have been released on bail, that the applicant has roots in the society and he will not flee away from the trial and that only simple injuries were sustained by the informant and his cousin, the application deserves to be allowed, subject to certain conditions. Hence, the following order:
