ORDER (Per: Y. G. Khobragade, J.)

1. By the present petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, the Petitioners, who are blood relatives/ siblings, take exception to the order dated 02.09.2025 passed by Respondent No.2 Scrutiny Committee, thereby invalidating their "Mannervarlu" Schedule Tribe Certificates.

2. Issue notice to the respondents. Learned AGP waives notice on behalf of the respondents.

3. The petitioners are the students and they require validity for education purpose. The petitioners claim that they belong to Mannervarlu Schedule Tribe and they are intending to secure admission to professional course from the seat reserved for the Scheduled Tribe Category. Therefore, considering the urgency shown, the petition is taken up for disposal at the stage of admission.

4. Individual proposals of the petitioners were forwarded to Respondent No.2 Scrutiny Committee for validation of their tribe certificates. The petitioners have submitted various documents, including validity certificates of blood relatives, school entries etc. in support of their claims. However, by a common order dated 02.09.2025, the claims of the petitioners of belonging to "Mannervarlu" Scheduled Tribe are rejected by the Committee.

5. Having regard to the submissions canvassed on behalf of both the sides, we have gone through the record.

6. As per the genealogical tree, Sambhaji Kondiba Akulwad, forefather of the petitioners, had two sons namely Bhimrao Sambhaji Akulwad and Rajaram Sambhaji Akulwad. Bhaskar (father of petitioner Nos. 3 and 4) and Ramdas are the sons of Bhimrao Sambhaji Akulwad. Sugriv (father of petitioner Nos. 1 and 2) and Gokul are the sons of Rajaram Sambhaji Akulwad.

7. On the face of record, it appears that on 05.09.2006, the Respondent- Scrutiny Committee had granted validity certificate of belonging to "Mannervarlu" Scheduled tribe in favour of Bhaskar Bhimrao Akulwad, father of petitioner Nos. 3 and 4 and cousin real uncle of Petitioner Nos.1 and 2. Further, on 03.06.2010, the Respondent- Scrutiny Committee had granted validity certificate of belonging to "Mannervarlu" Scheduled tribe in favour of Sugriv Rajaram Akulwad, father of petitioner Nos. 1 and 2 and cousin real uncle of Petitioner Nos.3 and 4.

8. Respondent No.2 passed the impugned order and invalidated the scheduled tribe claim of the petitioners on the grounds that the petitioner failed to prove the affinity and that the paternal blood relatives of the petitioners obtained validity certificates on the basis of false documents and concealment of original record and therefore, notice for revocation of validity certificates was issued to the paternal blood relatives, including fathers of the petitioners. However, as on today, the validity certificates of Mannervarlu Scheduled Tribe issued in favour of blood relatives of the petitioners are still in operation. Admittedly, the validity holders are the paternal blood relatives of the petitioners and the committee has not denied the same.

9. In cases of Mah. Adiwasi Mannervarlu Jamat Swarakshan Samiti Vs. State of Maharashtra & Ors.; AIR 2023 S.C. 1657, Shweta Balaji Isankar V/s. State of Maharashtra & Ors., 2018 SCC Online Bom. 10341, Apoorva Vinay Nichale-Vs- Divisional Caste Certificate Scrutiny Committee No. 1 and Ors., [2010 (6) Mh. L. J. 401], it has been concluded that when the biological father, biological siblings, biological uncle etc., are granted validity certificates, a candidate so related to them, cannot be deprived of a validity certificate. Therefore, considering parity with the blood relatives of the petitioners, the petitioners are entitled to have conditional validity subject to outcome of the decision in the proceedings in respect of the blood relatives of the petitioners, which the committee has decided to reopen.

10. Learned counsel for the petitioners voluntarily submitted that blood relatives of the petitioners to whom the notice for revocation of validity has been served shall forthwith execute an undertaking before the Respondent No.2 Committee that they would regularly appear in the matter and shall cooperate with the Committee for early decision in the said matter.

11. The Petitioners appear to be the aspiring students for the professional courses. Therefore, they are called upon to furnish undertaking that, in case, their tribe certificates are invalidated by the Scrutiny Committee, in that event they shall pay the tuition fees and admission fees applicable to the candidates from open category and no equity shall lie in their favour.

12. In view of above discussion, the present Petition deserves to be allowed partly and the impugned order dated 02.09.2025 passed by Respondent No.2 Scrutiny Committee needs to be quashed and set aside. Accordingly, we proceed to pass the following order:-

ORDER

- i) The Writ Petition is partly allowed.
- ii) Impugned order dated on 02.09.2025, passed by Respondent No.2 Scrutiny Committee is hereby quashed and set aside.
- iii) Respondent No.2 Scrutiny Committee shall immediately issue “Mannervarlu” Scheduled Tribe Validity certificates in favour of the Petitioners, which shall be subject to following conditions:-

- (a) The caste validity certificates shall be subject to the outcome of the re-verification of the validity certificates of their blood relatives proposed by the Scrutiny Committee.
- (b) The Petitioners shall furnish undertaking before the Registrar (Judicial) of this Court as well as before the Scrutiny Committee and the Educational Institutions with whom they will take admissions for professional courses, indicating that in case their caste validity is revoked, they would deposit the tuition fees and other charges applicable to the candidates from open category.
- (c) The Petitioners shall not claim any equity.
- (d) The Petitioners shall cooperate with the Scrutiny Committee.
- iv) S/Shri Sugriv Rajaram Akulwad and Bhaskar Bhimrao Akulwad, fathers & paternal blood relatives of the Petitioners, who are served with notice of revocation of validity, shall furnish undertaking before the Scrutiny Committee, stating that they will cooperate and appear before the Scrutiny Committee as and when called upon.
