PER COURT :-

1. In this group of appeals, the length of the delay ranges from 2674 to 2765. Contesting party/respondent No.3 has not caused any appearance despite service. The averments of the applications are uncontroverted. There is nothing to disbelieve the contents of the applications. No malafides can be inferred for causing delay in preferring appeals. It is desirable to condone the delay on certain conditions. It reveals from record that applications for condonation of delay was filed along with appeals on 25.08.2023. The first order is solicited on 11.08.2025. Applicants are unable to explain the lapses on their part. They are not entitled to statutory benefits for this period.

2. The delay stands condoned on condition that applicants shall not be entitled interest and statutory benefits for the delayed period as well as for the lapses from 25.08.2023 to 11.08.2025.

First Appeals

3. Appellants shall furnish details of the appeals preferred by the acquiring body.

4. List present appeals along with those appeals which were filed by acquiring body.

5. Leave to correct grounds.
